

ASTOR TROPHY

AUSTRALIAN REPRESENTATIVES AND RECORDS

The Astor Trophy (known as the Commonwealth Trophy until 2011) is held once every four years between teams from Australia, Canada, Great Britain, New Zealand and South Africa. It originated when two Australian Ladies Golf Union delegates (Miss Jean Derrin and Miss Mollie McLeish) suggested to the Ladies Golf Union that a tournament should be conducted within the Commonwealth. The idea was first accepted by the LGU, and later by three other countries – Canada, South Africa and New Zealand, when they were approached in 1957.

The trophy was presented by Nancy, Viscountess Astor, CH.

Each country is represented by 5 national team players who play foursomes and singles match play in a round robin format.
